Today's Meeting;

For the last time as our current Rotary President, Bob Nakken called the meeting to order. Jim Nolan led the Pledge of Allegiance. Sergeants at arms, Don Huff III. Steve Venables, Jim McGibbon. Dan Stroski and Jordi Richter kicked us off with Rotary Grace. Pictures and website by Kris Kristensen. Angela Lynn is doing Meals-on-Wheels. Nick Roncoroni is on Splinter duty. Technology committee, Shawn Seyk.

Visiting Rotarians;

Byron MacConnell, Don Sharp & Keith Rode – Woodland Sunrise

Guests;

Skyler Venables and Sarah Bord

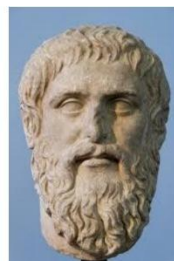

Birthdays;

Dr. Jim McGibbon celebrated his 85th birthday with us on June 24th. After completing his residency, Dr. McGibbon visited several hospitals, and the Woodland Clinic was the final stop on his trip. Jim reflected on his career, wonderful family, and the outstanding community of Woodland. He has the Flyers Club, Holy Rosary Church, and 37 years in the Rotary Club of Woodland. What else could you ask for!

Plato

“Wise men speak because they have something to say; fools speak because they have to say something.”

One-Year Terms (2025-26): Rob Beggs, Lisa Martinez Dunham, and Nick Roncoroni

Recognition; Christian Sherrill did recognition today. Jayne Williams rang the bell for her nephew's wedding that she attended in Yosemite over the weekend. Additionally, the ALMS students enjoyed a memorable field trip to the Bayer Woodland R&D facility. Jim Nolan thanked Kevin Haarberg for filling in for him last week with recognition, Jim was vacationing in Mendocino. Don Huff III was happy that the north shore of Lake Tahoe only saw two-foot waves, considering the south shore had six-foot waves. Bob Nakken had a marathon weekend of social events, including a Giants game vs. Alyssa's new team, the Guardians. Shawn Seyk has officially retired as a Soccer Coach. He spent his last afternoon as a coach driving back from Southern California while the players sang karaoke all the way home.

Rags to Riches;

With 13 cards remaining and $411 in the pot...
Ernie Hodges pulled a free lunch.

Today's Program; President Bob Nakken, Thank you for making this a very enjoyable year. In noting what the Club accomplished this year, President Bob gave thanks to all members for their support and presented tokens of his appreciation to Club Board members, committee chairs, and others involved in keeping the Club operating. We will celebrate President Bob at the demotion next Monday, June 30, at the Schwarzgruber's home.

Upcoming Programs;

July 1st – Dark for Independence Day Holiday

July 8th - President Aniek Pflager Starts the Club's 100th Year
